Privacy Notice for Recruitment and Employment

V2.0
March 2020

Recruitment and Employment

Our core data protection obligations and commitments are set out in the council's primary privacy notice at

<http://www.bolton.gov.uk/home/Pages/Copyrightdisclaimerandprivacy.aspx>

This notice provides additional privacy information for:

- applicants;
- employees (and former employees);
- workers (including agency, casual and contracted staff); volunteers;
- trainees and those carrying out work experience

It describes how we collect, use and share personal information about you

- before, during and after your working relationship with us, and
- the types of personal information we need to process, including information the law describes as 'special' because of its sensitivity

It is important that you read this notice, together with any other privacy information we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal information about you, so that you are aware of how and why we are using such information.

Purpose(s)

The main reasons for processing your personal information are:

- Undertaking pre-employment and verification checks during the recruitment process
- Making a decision about your recruitment or appointment.
- Determining the terms on which you work for us
- Checking you are legally entitled to work in the UK
- Paying you and, if you are an employee, or IR35 covered contractor, deducting tax and National Insurance contributions
- Liaising with your pension provider
- Administering the contract we have entered into with you
- Business management and planning, including accounting and auditing
- Conducting performance reviews, managing performance and determining performance requirements
- Making decisions about salary reviews and compensation
- Assessing qualifications for a particular job or task, including decisions about promotions
- Gathering evidence for possible formal investigations and hearings for example grievance or disciplinary
- Making decisions about your continued employment or engagement
- Making arrangements for the termination of our working relationship
- Education, training and development requirements

- Dealing with legal disputes involving you, or other employees, workers and contractors, including accidents at work
- Ascertaining your fitness to work
- Managing sickness absence
- Complying with health and safety obligations and public access legislation
- To prevent fraud, including sharing and matching of personal information for the national fraud initiative
- To conduct data analytics studies to review and better understand employee retention and turnover rates
- For equal opportunities monitoring purposes
- To inform you of your rights to join a Trade union where you have consented

Categories of personal data

In order to carry out our activities and obligations as an employer we process personal information in relation to:

- Personal demographics (including date of birth, gender, religion)
- Photographs, CCTV footage and other information obtained through electronic means such as swipe card records
- Contact details such as names, addresses, personal email address, telephone numbers and Emergency contact(s)
- Recruitment records (including CV, application form, references, pre-employment and verification checks)
- Employment records (including your workplace, job title, national insurance number, training records, professional memberships, proof of eligibility to work in the UK and security checks)
- Bank account details, payroll records and tax status information
- Salary, annual leave, pension and benefits information
- Information relating to health and safety (including accident and incident details)
- Information about your use of our information and communications systems
- Disciplinary and Grievance information (including Employment Tribunal applications, complaints).

We may also collect, store and use the following special and sensitive personal information:

- Information about your race or ethnicity, religious beliefs, sexual orientation (including ensuring meaningful equal opportunities monitoring and reporting)
- Trade union membership (including complying with employment law and paying subscriptions)
- Medical information including physical health or mental condition, sickness and occupational health records (including to comply with employment and other laws, ensure health & safety, assess fitness to work and monitor and manage absence)
- Genetic information and biometric data
- Offences (including alleged offences), criminal proceedings, outcomes and sentences

We will only collect information about criminal convictions if it is appropriate for the employment role and where we are legally permitted or required to do so. We collect information about criminal convictions as part of the recruitment process or may be notified of information directly by you or a 3rd party in the course of your recruitment or employment. We will use information about criminal convictions and offences in the following ways:

- For the purposes of recruitment
- For determination of continued employment if you have committed an offence

Any processing of criminal conviction information will be in accordance with Article 10, General Data Protection Regulation and Schedule 1 (Part 2) of the Data Protection Act 2018.

We do not need your consent to use personal or special categories of your personal information to carry out our legal obligations or exercise specific rights in the field of employment law, social security and social protection. In limited circumstances, we may approach you for your written consent to allow us to process your personal information. If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the information that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent. You should be aware that it is not a condition of your contract with us that you agree to any request for consent from us and that where consent is given, you have the right to withdraw it at anytime (without affecting the lawfulness of our processing prior to the withdrawal of your consent).

Legal basis for processing

The legal bases we rely on for processing your personal information (Specified within Articles 6 and 9 of GDPR) are:

- entering into or performing obligations under your contract of employment
- performing or exercising obligations or rights under employment law, social security law or social protection
- general legal obligations we must meet
- where it is needed to assess your working capacity on health grounds, subject to appropriate confidentiality safeguards
- where it is needed in relation to exercising or defending legal rights (e.g. in relation to legal proceedings and claims)
- your consent (in situations where you have a genuine choice and control over whether your information is processed, including the right to withdraw your consent at any time without detriment)
- fraud prevention and protection of public funds
- compliance with any Court Orders
- where it is needed to protect your interests (or someone else's interests) and you are not capable of giving your consent

Ancillary to the performance of employment contracts the Council will:

- Monitor your use of our information and communication systems to ensure compliance with our IT policies.
- Ensure network and information security, including preventing unauthorised access to our computer and electronic communications systems and preventing malicious software distribution.

If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have entered into with you (such as paying you or providing a benefit), or we may be prevented from complying with our legal obligations (such as to ensure the health and safety of our workers).

This could damage employment relationship /result in breach of contract.

Information sharing/recipients

In addition to the general reasons for information sharing described in the council's primary privacy notice:

- we may share information about you with third parties where required by law, where necessary to fulfil your contract of employment or where a third party has a legitimate interest
- for the purposes of the National Fraud Initiative conducted by central government under Section 33 and Schedule 9 of the Local Audit and Accountability Act 2014
- in connection with school workforce census as provided for in Section 114 of the Education Act 2005 and the associated Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (No.2) (England) Regulations 2007/2260, which affects some directly employed council staff working in education
- we may share information about you with Manchester Foundation Trust for the purposes of workforce planning under the Virtual Workforce Information System (VWIS)
- we may share your information with recognised Trade Unions where you have consented for us to do so

As well as information directly collected from candidates in the recruitment process and from employees during the course of employment, we also collect or receive information from:

- former employers
- referees
- employment agencies
- Disclosure and Barring Service
- complainants (e.g. service users/employees)
- next of kin
- health professionals (with consent)
- public sources, if relevant to employment and job role
- Home Office (where applicable)

Automated Decisions

For this processing all the decisions we make about you involve human intervention

Data retention/criteria

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any future legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

Once your employment ends we must continue to retain necessary information for a minimum of 6 years except superannuation information and for pensionable employees, certain employment records must be kept until after pension benefits become payable.

Rights of individuals

You have a number of legal rights in relation to your personal information. These apply regardless of your employment status with the Council.

You have a right to be informed about how and why your personal information is being processed. This notice fulfils that obligation.

You also have a number of other rights. Information on these rights and how to exercise them can be accessed in the following guide:

<https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/>

If you wish to exercise your rights (as outlined above) or to raise a concern about the handling of your personal information by the council, please contact our Information Governance Team at information.security@bolton.gov.uk

If you are still unsatisfied you should contact The Information Commissioner's Office by post at: The ICO, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or by telephone: 0303 123 1113

Updates to Privacy Notice

We may update or revise this Privacy Notice from time to time and provide supplementary privacy information as is necessary to the Council's current workforce.
