Introduction

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Trust uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing privacy notices (sometimes called fair processing notices) to individuals where we are processing their personal data.
This privacy notice explains how and why we collect, store and use personal data about pupils.

We, The Sycamore Church of England Trust are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law. The Trust is registered as a data controller with the Information Commissioners Office (ICO). Our registration number is ZA253323

This Privacy Notice relates to The Sycamore C.E Trust, and its constituent Academies:

- Christ Church C.E Primary School
- St. John's C.E Primary School
- Radcliffe Hall C.E / Methodist Primary School
- St Stephen's C.E Primary School
- St Thomas's C.E Primary School
- Holy Trinity C.E Primary School

and any other Academy which joins the Trust in the future (hereafter referred to as the 'Trust').

Our data protection officer is Shard Business Services (see 'Contact us' below).

1. Data Protection Principles

Personal Data must be processed in accordance with the six Data Protection Principles. It must be:

- used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- accurate and kept up to date.
- kept only for as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- kept securely.

2. Categories of job applicant data we collect

The categories of job applicants' personal data that we collect, process, hold, and share include, but is not limited to:

- your name, address and contact details, including email address and telephone number.
- details of your qualifications, skills, experience, and employment history
- information about your current level of remuneration, including benefit entitlements.
- medical details, N.I. number
- information about your entitlement to work in the UK.
- CCTV images (not all sites)

We may also collect, store, and use information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes information about:

- Race, ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation, and Trade Union membership

- Disability, health, and access requirements

3. Collecting this information

We collect job applicant personal data from:

- the individual via application forms
- documents provided to prove your identity and entitlement to work in the UK such as passports or other identity documents.
- during the interview process and other forms of assessment therein,
- third parties such as employment agencies, references from current/former employers and others
- DBS checks
- Occupational Health such as pre-employment health checks
- In addition, we also use CCTV cameras in and around some of our sites for security purposes and the protection of staff, partners, volunteers, and other stakeholders.

While most job applicant data provided to us is mandatory, there is some information that may be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information, we will make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional. If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying. If you fail to provide certain information when requested, we may be prevented from complying with our official or legal obligations.

4.Why we collect and process job applicant personal data.

We collect job applicant data to safeguard and promote your welfare, to promote the objects and interests of the Trust, to facilitate the efficient operation of the Trust and to ensure that all relevant legal obligations are complied with. For example, we collect data for the following reasons:

- Deciding on whether to appoint you.
- Checking your suitability to be our employee
- Facilitating safer recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- Identifying you and safely evacuating the premises in the event of an emergency
- Enabling equalities monitoring
- Ensuring that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for job applicants who require them.
- Sending you communications relating to your job application
- Complying with health and safety obligations
- Maintaining and promoting equality
- Monitoring recruitment statistics
- Receiving advice from external advisors and consultants
- Responding to and defending legal claims

5.Automated Decision Making

Automated decision-making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make decisions without human intervention. We are permitted to use automated decision-making in limited circumstances.
We do not envisage that any decisions will be taken about you using automated means. However, we will notify you in writing if this position changes.

6.The Lawful Bases on which we Process Personal Data

We only collect and use personal data when the law and our policies allow us to do so. We process general category data where:

- the data subject, or a person with the lawful authority to exercise consent on the data subject's behalf, has given consent.
- the processing is necessary for a contract we have with you, or because it is necessary to take steps before entering into a contract with you.
- the processing is necessary for us to comply with a legal obligation.
- the processing is necessary to protect your vital interest or that of another person.
- the processing is necessary for us to perform a task in the public interest or for our official functions, and this task or function is lawful.

We process special category data where for reasons of public health:

- the data subject, or a person with the lawful authority to exercise consent on the data subject's behalf, has given explicit consent.
- the processing is necessary for carrying out our obligations concerning employment law.
- the processing is necessary to protect your vital interests or those of another person where you/they are physically or legally incapable of giving consent.
- the processing relates to personal data which are manifestly made public by the data subject.
- the processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise, or defence of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity.
- the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, based on domestic law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.
- the processing is necessary, where applicable, for preventative or occupational medicine to assess the working capacity of the employee or to obtain a medical diagnosis.
- the processing is necessary for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds that justify our use of this data.

7.Criminal Proceedings/Convictions

We may only use information relating to criminal convictions where the law allows us to do so. This will usually be where such processing is necessary to carry out our legal and safeguarding obligations and provided, we do so in line with data protection legislation.

We envisage that we will hold information about criminal convictions if information about criminal convictions comes to light as a result of Disclosure and Barring Service checks, or if information about criminal convictions comes to light during the recruitment process.

Where appropriate, such information may be shared with external agencies such as the child protection team at the Local Authority, the Local Authority Designated Officer and/or the Police.

Such information will only be processed to the extent that it is lawful to do so, and appropriate measures will be taken to keep the data secure.

8.Consent

We may process personal information without your consent, in compliance with the above lawful bases, where this is required or permitted by law and our policies.

We will ask for consent to process general personal data where there is no other lawful basis for processing it. For example, where we wish to use your photographs on our website or social media channels for promotional/marketing purposes.

In limited circumstances, we may approach you for your written consent to allow us to process 'special category' data (e.g., to obtain a pre-employment health check). If we do so, we will provide you with full details of the information that we would like and the reason we need it, so that you can carefully consider whether you wish to consent.

Where we rely solely on consent as the lawful basis for processing, consent may be withdrawn at any time.

9.Change of Purpose

We will only use your personal information for the purposes for which it was collected unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason, and that reason is compatible with the original purpose.

If we need to use your personal information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and explain the legal basis which allows us to do so, or seek your consent, if necessary, before the processing commences.

10.Storage and Retention of Personal Data

A significant amount of personal data is stored electronically. Some information may also be stored as hard copy.

All data is stored and processed following the data protection legislation.

We will only retain your personal information for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including to satisfy any legal, accounting, insurance or reporting requirements.

Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal information are available in our Data Retention Schedule.

Following the recruitment process, we will retain and securely destroy your personal information following our Data Retention Policy and Schedule.

11.CCTV

CCTV is used at some of our sites. The purpose of the system is to prevent crime and promote security and public safety.

If in the event of viewing CCTV for the specified purpose, a safeguarding or criminal action is observed, the CCTV images can and may be used to support any subsequent investigation.

We do not need to ask individuals' permission to use CCTV, but we make it clear where individuals are being recorded. Security cameras are clearly visible and accompanied by prominent signs explaining that CCTV is in use.

Images are retained for a maximum of 30 days. After this period images will be permanently deleted unless they are required and retained for an ongoing investigation. For example, if an incident or crime has been recorded. In such cases, the images will be retained until the conclusion of any actions or criminal proceedings arising from the incident.

Any enquiries about the CCTV system should be directed to office@thesycamoretrust.co.uk

12.Sharing Personal Data

We do not share job applicant data with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so. Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law), we routinely share job applicant data with:

- HR
- the recruitment/interview panel
- the line manager for the area with the vacancy
- the IT manager, if access to the data is necessary for them to carry out their roles

If you are successful in being offered the post the Trust will share your personal data with employment background check providers, the Disclosure and Barring Service and our Occupational Health provider to obtain the necessary background, criminal records and health checks (see section 4 above).

13.Transferring Data Outside The UK

We do not routinely share data with organisations outside the UK. Where this may be necessary, for example, where your last position was for an organisation outside of the UK, we may transfer data to seek references etc., with appropriate safeguards.

We will not transfer personal data outside the UK unless such a transfer complies with the UK GDPR. This means that we cannot transfer any personal data outside the UK unless:

- The Secretary of State has decided that another country or international organisation ensures an adequate level of protection for personal data.
- One of the derogations in the UK GDPR applies (including if an individual explicitly consents to the proposed transfer).

14.Data Security

We have put in place appropriate organisational and technological security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used, or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, consultants, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions, and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

15.Your Data Subject Rights

You have the right to:

- Make a Subject Access Request (SAR) (see below)
- Withdraw your consent to processing based solely on consent, at any time.
- Ask us to rectify, erase or restrict the processing of your personal data, or object to the processing of it (in certain circumstances)
- Prevent the use of your personal data for direct marketing.
- Challenge processing which has been justified based on public interest.
- Request a copy of agreements under which your personal data is transferred outside of the UK.
- Object to decisions based solely on automated decision-making or profiling. The Trust does not use automated decision-making and/or profiling in any of its processes and procedures.
- Prevent processing that is likely to cause damage or distress.
- Be notified of a data breach in certain circumstances.
- Make a complaint to the ICO.
- Ask for personal data to be transferred to a third party in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format (in certain circumstances).

For more information about your data subject rights please see here.

Your Duty to Inform us of Changes.
The personal information we hold about you must be accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your time with us.

Subject Access Requests
Under data protection legislation, individuals have the right to request access to their personal data held by the Trust. Subject Access Requests may be made in writing or verbally.

If you would like to make a SAR concerning your personal data it would be helpful if this could be made in writing to the Trust, including:

- name and contact address
- email address and telephone number
- details of the information required.

Fulfilling A Subject Access Request
The lawful time scale for the Trust to respond to a Subject Access Request is one calendar month from receipt of a 'valid' SAR.

A SAR is only considered 'valid when we are fully satisfied with the identity of the requester and their entitlement to the data requested. If in any doubt we will request confirmation of identity to ensure your personal data is not inadvertently released to a third party who is not entitled to it.

The Trust has limited administrative resources outside of term time, we encourage employees to submit Subject Access Requests during term time and to avoid sending a SAR just before or during term breaks. This will assist us in responding to your request as promptly as possible.

If the SAR is complex or numerous, the period in which we must respond may be extended by a further two months. You will be notified of any delays in actioning the SAR and provided with a timeframe in which you can expect to receive the requested data.

Fees

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal information (or to exercise any of your other data subject rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your access request is manifestly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

Exercising Other Data Subject Rights

If you wish to review, verify, correct or request the erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact the Trust in the first instance (details below).

The Right to Withdraw Consent

Where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing, and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, and there is no other applicable lawful basis for processing the data, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the Trust directly.

Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another lawful basis for doing so.

16.Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading, or inappropriate, or have any other concerns about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance. We will acknowledge your concern within 30 days and will respond without undue delay.

If you have any concerns that we are not able to resolve to your satisfaction, you can contact our Data Protection Officer at the address below.

Alternatively, you can register your concern with the UK's data protection regulator - the Information Commissioner's Office:

- Report a concern online at https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/your-personal-information-concerns/
- Call 0303 123 1113
- Or write to Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF.
