

Specialist SEN teacher

Service	Reporting to	Location	Grade
Learning Support Service	Team Leader / Service Manager	Unity House	Teacher salary scales (+SEN allowance discretionary)

About the role

- The role is about contributing towards the delivery of a high quality SEN service to the children and young people of Salford and their families via:
- Working within a team of dedicated specialist teachers and TAs to provide support to all schools across the LA
- Providing advice, support and training to schools and settings, governors, children / young people and parents / carers on matters relating to SEND
- Delivery of training to school staff, parents and other professionals
- Working with the service leadership on pupil progress, attainment, CPD, and monitoring and evaluation
- Working with schools and settings to address the needs of pupils with EHCPs and IEPs and monitor progress against objectives and targets
- Contribution to EHCP annual reviews and multi-agency meetings as appropriate
- Offering support for school staff and other professionals through discussion, resources and specific interventions
- Working with and directing LSS Teaching Assistants to provide appropriate 1:1 and small group intervention work for identified children / young people
- Helping to raise attainment, self esteem and confidence with learning, and encouraging high expectations for all learners, including involving pupils in their learning and ensuring their voice is heard
- Working in a multi-agency way across the LA with other professionals from education, health and social care
- Writing advice and reports for school, towards EHC needs assessments and as part of the EHCP annual review process where necessary
- Delivering support and training at SEN support in schools and settings, including where an LA decision has been made not to undertake statutory assessment

Key outcomes

- You will help ensure that every school works towards demonstrating a culture of high expectations by enabling them to have a greater understanding of SEND and therefore the ability to provide a more appropriate individualised education for all children and young people with SEND

- You will help improve educational outcomes for children and young people at both SEN Support and those with an EHCP
- You will help improve awareness of SEND both at a classroom and whole school level, helping to ensure appropriate identification of SEND and promote inclusion within mainstream schools.
- By supportively challenging schools / classroom staff you will help all children and young people access appropriate educational provision in the most optimum environment for their needs
- By working closely with colleagues across education, health and social care, you will ensure that appropriate advice and intervention is provided by the appropriate professionals and will contribute to, and facilitate, multi-disciplinary school SEN support meetings and attend annual review meetings where necessary
- You will improve children's self esteem, independence and confidence through meaningful discussion and accessing their opinions and concerns, and actively involving them in their learning

What we need from you

- To model and demonstrate our values and behaviours.
- Qualified teacher status
- Additional qualification in SEN, or willingness to undertake relevant additional qualification
- Proven high quality mainstream experience
- Experience in teaching children / young people with SEND
- Knowledge of current legislation affecting SEND
- Excellent communication skills
- Experience of working with multi-agency teams
- Knowledge and understanding of SEN procedures
- Ability to offer INSET at service and school level
- Ability to use ICT as an integral part of practice
- Ability to work independently within agreed service priorities
- Ability to work effectively with children / young people, parents, schools, governors and other partner agencies.

What we can offer you

A digital organisation

Developing your digital skills

Our ambition is to provide our workforce with the right level of digital capabilities needed to be successful. Whatever your current digital abilities are, we can provide development ranging from essential workplace skills to specialist workplace skills. These will be delivered through our Digital Skills Academy using both self-directed and guided learning opportunities to enable you to develop. Additionally, you can access free online courses through the iDea website.

Sharing your digital skills

Our goal is to support you to share your digital knowledge with other people. Our Digital Eagles programme has been designed to cover basic digital skills and build your confidence to assist others. By the end of this programme you will join hundreds of staff members who already are digital eagles, and be able to help colleagues, customers, residents, or people in your personal life with all things digital.

Our organisation's values

We have four values: Pride, Passion, People, Personal responsibility.

Our four values are central to the way we communicate about the council and the way in which we behave with colleagues, customers, and partners - so that we live and breathe our values each day.
