Eligibility to work in the UK

Current legislation means that it is a criminal offence to employ a person who is subject to immigration control, unless he or she has documentary proof showing an entitlement to work in the UK. If selected for interview you will be asked to provide proof of your work entitlements.

Do you have an entitlement to work in the UK? YES NO

Dismissed

Have you ever been dismissed from employment for gross misconduct reasons?

YES NO

If YES please give details, including dates, reasons and employer. _____

Disability

The Equality Act 2010 protects disabled people – including those with long term health conditions, learning disabilities and ‘so called’ hidden disabilities such as dyslexia. If you tell us that you have a disability we can make reasonable adjustments to ensure that any selection process including the interview is fair and equitable.

Do you consider yourself to be disabled? Yes No

Please specify any arrangements we can make to assist you if you are invited for interview/assessment. _____

--	------------------------------	-----------------------------

If yes, please state;

Do you have any previous offences/s? If so please give details

Nature of Offence/s (i.e. Conviction, caution, bind-over, reprimand, warning or allegation)	Offence/s	Date of Offence/s	Disposal (if known)

- I agree to a disclosure being sought through the Disclosure and Barring Service (previously Criminal Records Bureau) about the existence and content of any criminal record.
- I confirm that I am not included on the ISA Children’s Barred List and am therefore not disqualified from working with either of these vulnerable groups.
- I confirm that I am not subject to any sanctions imposed by a regulatory body, such as the Health & Care Professions Council (HCPC), which would prevent me from undertaking the duties of the post I am applying for.
- I confirm that I am not subject to any on-going investigation into any matter which may bring into question my suitability for the post I am applying for.
- If successful in obtaining this post I will immediately notify my headteacher and HR department, if during the course of my employment, I am convicted, cautioned, included on any of the Barred Lists, or if my suitability to work with children or vulnerable adults is ever questioned.

Please type Yes in the box to confirm your agreement to the above

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

Skills, Knowledge and Experience

This section of the application form is very important, as this is where you demonstrate your suitability for the job. Read through the advertisement and the job description to get a clear view of what the job involves. The person specification describes the necessary skills, experience and qualifications we are looking for. Pay particular attention to those areas on the person specification described as essential.

Make sure that you tell us how you match the competencies of the person specification in relation to the requirements of the job. Therefore, give examples of any relevant ability, experience and qualifications.

- Ensure that the information you provide is well organised and relevant to the competency you are responding to.
- It should show to that extent you have gained the skills and experience necessary for the post.
- Give specific examples of the work you have been involved in, how you went about it and the outcome.
- Remember to specify your responsibilities rather than those of your section/department.
