About the Job

Role:	Social Worker – Children with Disabilities
Service Area:	Stockport Family
Directorate:	Services to People - Childrens
Salary Grade:	SO2

Main Purpose of the Job

To work in a Children with Disabilities social work team, providing social work services to children in need (team around the child), children subject to a child protection plan and children looked after.

In Stockport Family the social work role is to support the child and family from first assessment to the completion of the social work role, to minimise transfer points and optimise relationship building.

The social worker also works in Stockport's team around the school programme and provides a link social worker to a school or schools within the locality.

Key Responsibilities

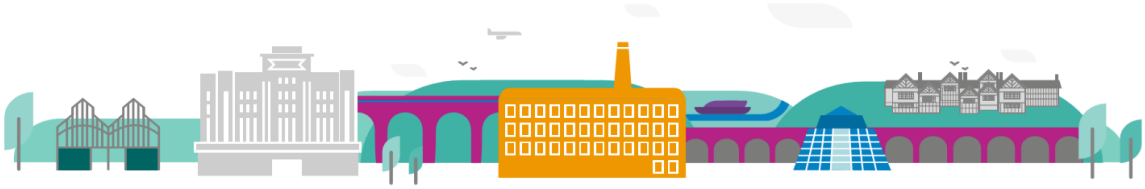

- To ensure an effective, coordinated response to children, young people and families in need of social work support, either as a child in need (team around the child in Stockport), child in need of protection or a looked after child, including children who's cases proceed to court proceedings.
- To complete investigations, assessments;
- draw up plans and review the progress of the plans in accordance with agreed and statutory timeframes.
- To work with others to secure the best outcomes for the children you are allocated to work with.
- To identify and secure the most appropriate service to support and safeguard disabled children and their families.
- To work as part of a team and within a locality to support and safeguard disabled children.
- To keep accurate and timely records in line with local and statutory requirements.
- To be a designated link for a school or schools within your locality and to work with the team around that school to provide safeguarding expertise and support within the school community.
- To ensure that service user views and the voice of the child is incorporated into all your work.
- To work dynamically within Stockport Family and with partners to identify pathways for support for children and families, using strengths-based principles

- To be a champion for Stockport Family and the principles of restorative approaches and of quality conversations, collaboration and minimal points of transfer.
- To practice and promote a culture which places children, young people and families at the heart of the service.
- To work in accordance with legislative requirements and local, regional and national policy and procedures.
- To keep up to date with national and local developments relevant to the service area.
- To work collaboratively and creatively with schools, colleges, other Local Authorities, other agencies, the voluntary sector and other groups to coordinate interventions for vulnerable children and young people.
- To understand and embrace restorative practice and a strengths-based approach to work with children, families and communities.
- Contribute to the development of an effective and well-functioning team by using emotionally intelligent social work practice i.e. self-awareness, interpersonal awareness, self-management and interpersonal relationship management.
- To have demonstrable knowledge of child protection, safeguarding children, early help assessment/team around the child and the care of looked after children and apply this to practice.
- To perform any other duties that correspond reasonably with the general character of the post and that are commensurate with its level of responsibility.
- To be a car driver or have the ability to get to visits and between bases in a timely manner.
- To work positively and inclusively with colleagues and customers so that the Council provides a workplace to deliver a service that does not discriminate against people on the grounds of their age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage, civil partnership, pregnancy, maternity, race, religion, belief, sex, or sexual orientation.
- To fulfil personal requirements, where appropriate, with regards to Council policies and procedures, standards of attendance, health, safety and welfare, customer care, emergency, evacuation, security and promotion of the Council's priorities.

Additional Information

The responsibilities set out in this document, in the advert and any additional information are intended to provide a flavour of the work you will carry out. It is not possible to include everything you will be asked to undertake, and we expect all colleagues to work flexibly according to business needs and to enhance your own development. Your skills, abilities and training needs will be taken into account and discussed with you when any significant changes to your role are needed. In line with our flexible approach you may be required to work from home for a proportion of your time or from any of the Council's sites across the borough.

The Council is an inclusive employer and holds the Disability Confident and Armed Forces Covenant accreditations. If you have a disability, we will support you by implementing reasonable adjustments to enable you to perform your role.
