About the Job

Role:

Experienced Social Worker – Complex Safeguarding

Service Area:

Youth Justice & Complex Safeguarding

Directorate:

Services to People - Childrens

Salary Grade:

SO3

Main Purpose of the Job

As an Experienced Social Worker within Complex Safeguarding you will be to provide services to children where there are concerns identified in relation to complex safeguarding. This involves working closely with locality social workers who are the primary social worker for the child, and as part of an integrated approach with Youth Justice, Police, health, and education. It is important to understand the pathways to support for children and young people at risk of exploitation, ensuring that a trusted relationship approach is utilised and the right service to meet the child/young person's needs is in place.

You will contribute to the understanding of strengths, risks and push/pull factors relating to child exploitation, through the undertaking of comprehensive assessments, utilising the WISE (working to increase safety in exploitation) assessment tool and impact chronologies. To utilise a relational and trauma-informed approach in the support provided to children and young people, including in the undertaking of assessments and planning.

To provide a daily advice and support offer to the wider service by offering advice and representation at key meetings where child exploitation, modern slavery, human trafficking and/or serious and organised crime is a concern.

To keep abreast of local and national policy and practice updates, with a particular focus on complex safeguarding, to ensure that practice in Stockport Family is delivered in line with national and local good practice standards and principles.

Key Responsibilities

- To provide an effective, coordinated response to children, young people, and families where there are concerns regarding complex safeguarding, including child sexual exploitation, child criminal exploitation, modern slavery, human trafficking, and serious and organised crime.
- To have demonstrable knowledge of complex safeguarding issues and the impact on children and families and have an ability to assess risk and support interventions to increase safety, using a trauma-informed approach.
- To have demonstrable knowledge of adolescent development and an ability to form relationships with young people through communication, commitment, and creativity.

Ambitious Stockport, creating opportunities for everyone

- To effectively manage a case load, often complex, and produce high quality (and in specific roles, specialist/evidence-based) analytical assessments, including for court, across Stockport Family identifying strengths, risks, support and protection needs and deciding on the most effective methods of intervention.
- To draw up plans and review the progress of the plans in accordance with agreed and statutory timeframes.
- To accurately assess and manage higher levels of risk and complexity, as an acknowledgment of experience and skill.
- To work closely with all colleagues across Stockport Family to ensure a coordinated and consistent response to children, young people, families and carers regardless of the level of need to secure the best outcomes.
- To identify and secure the most appropriate service to support and safeguard children, young people and families.
- To conduct both planned and spontaneous visits, writing detailed reports, and engaging in direct work with children and families, such as life story work.
- To keep accurate and timely records in line with local and statutory requirements.
- To be a designated link for a school or schools within your locality and to work with the team around that school to provide safeguarding expertise and support within the school community.
- To ensure that service user views and the voice of the child is incorporated into all your work.
- To work dynamically within Stockport Family and with partners to identify pathways for support for children and families, using strengths-based principles.
- To facilitate training and support groups for targeted families.
- To be a champion for Stockport Family and the principles of restorative approaches and of quality conversations, collaboration and minimal points of transfer.
- To practice and promote a culture which places children, young people and families at the heart of the service.
- To work in accordance with legislative requirements and local, regional and national policy and procedures.
- To keep up to date with national and local developments relevant to the service area.
- To work collaboratively and creatively with schools, colleges, other local authorities, other agencies, the voluntary sector and other groups to coordinate interventions for vulnerable children and young people.
- To understand and embrace restorative practice and a strengths-based approach to work with children, families and communities.
- Contribute to the development of an effective and well-functioning team by using emotionally intelligent social work practice i.e. self-awareness, interpersonal awareness, self-management and interpersonal relationship management.
- To have demonstrable knowledge of early help assessment/team around the child, child protection, safeguarding children, and the care of looked after children and plans for permanence and apply this to practice.
- To perform any other duties that correspond reasonably with the general character of the post and that are commensurate with its level of responsibility.
