About the Job

Role:	Family Help Intervention Worker
Service Area:	Family Help – Stockport Family
Directorate:	Services to People - Childrens
Salary Grade:	Scale 5

Stockport's family help offer is Stockport Family's delivery of universal health services and early help to children and young people 0-19 (25 Special Educational Needs and Disability SEND) and their families. The family help offer will be delivered through family hubs and neighbourhood working, aligned with the established 7 geographical footprints to ensure that children reach optimal development, and families thrive in the community where they live, having access to universal and early help support and interventions.

Teams within family help will provide a front-line service, working to in line with Stockport Family's start well and early help strategies, national supporting families programme and the healthy child programme 0-19.

Main Purpose of the Job

As a family intervention worker you will report to the family help senior social work practitioner you will provide a quality, systemic, restorative front-line service that supports children and families to thrive within the community where they live in line with Stockport Family's Early Help Strategy, Start Well Strategy, and the National Supporting Families Programme within the family help team.

You will work collaboratively and creatively with early years settings, schools, colleges, other Local Authorities, other agencies, the voluntary sector and other groups to deliver interventions for children and young people.

You will embrace the 3 principles of family hubs – Access, Connection and Relationships when working with colleagues and families and have a key role in completing early help assessments for children and families in need of help and support. This will include being a lead professional and/or a keyworker working with children and young people 0-19 (25 SEND), their family and partner agencies in the creation of outcome focused support plans and evidence-based interventions, underpinned by Solihull and restorative approaches.

Through Stockport family hubs and the Team Around the Early Years/School model you will play a role in connecting the family help team with universal services such as health, early years and education to address issues such as mental health, emotional and behavioural needs, parenting concerns, substance misuse, domestic abuse and family relationship breakdown, child development delay and SEND, to ensure families receive the right response at the right time.

Ambitious Stockport, creating opportunities for everyone

You will play a role in connecting the family help service with universal services such as health, schools and colleges in order to deliver interventions designed to support families across a range of presenting need such as mental health, emotional and behavioural needs, parenting concerns, substance misuse, domestic abuse and family relationship breakdown.

The post holder will work with a range of stakeholders, in a variety of settings, to achieve the shared outcomes of the Stockport Family offer.

You will be committed to Stockport Family's Co Production Charter and the outcomes framework for children and families.

- I feel safe
- I feel part of my local community
- My voice is heard and acted upon
- I enjoy good health and wellbeing
- I am happy and have people I can trust
