Letter to Applicants

Dear Candidate

Thank you for your interest in the teaching assistant opportunity at Oldfield Brow Primary School. We are delighted that you are considering joining our dedicated and dynamic team.

At Oldfield Brow, we are passionate about providing a learning environment where children are nurtured, challenged, and inspired to achieve their full potential. Our school motto, "Inspire the Exceptional", is at the heart of everything we do - not only for our pupils but also for our staff.

Our core values of Respect, Innovation, Reflection, Aspiration, and Collaboration are embedded in the daily life of the school. We are committed to fostering a culture where respect is mutual, innovation is encouraged, reflection drives growth, aspirations are high, and collaboration enhances success for all.

We are proud of our vibrant and diverse school community, based in the thriving town of Altrincham. Our school reflects the richness of the local area, and we celebrate the unique backgrounds, cultures, and experiences of our pupils and families. This diversity enhances our learning environment and helps us to nurture compassionate, curious, and confident young people who are ready to thrive in a global society.

As an Early Excellence Partner School, we are proud to be part of a national network that champions high-quality early education and child development. In addition, we are fortunate to have a Literacy Specialist on staff, offering expert support in driving outstanding literacy outcomes across the curriculum.

We are also a Voice 21 Oracy School, placing high value on developing pupils' speaking and listening skills. Through a rich oracy curriculum, we empower children to express themselves clearly, confidently, and respectfully; skills that are fundamental to their success both within and beyond the classroom.

Professional growth is central to our ethos. We are committed to personal and professional development, providing all staff with meaningful opportunities to grow, reflect, and lead. Whether through mentoring, coaching, or collaborative practice, you will be supported every step of the way.

We are looking for a passionate and reflective Teaching Assistant who shares our values and is excited to contribute to a vibrant and innovative school community.

Thank you once again for considering Oldfield Brow Primary School. We hope you will take this opportunity to join us in our mission to Inspire the Exceptional.

With very best wishes,

James Cash
