Teaching assistant L4 (HLTA)

Do you have a love of learning? Do you want to inspire future generations? Are you passionate about making difference? If so then we would love hear from you. We have an exciting opportunity for the right person to become part of our SEND teaching assistant team working in the resourced provision at Meadowbank Primary School. Meadowbank is a unique mainstream primary school that has an onsite Family Hub Centre, an 8place SEND unit and a resourced KS1 and KS2 provision integrated within the main school. Leaders wish to appoint an innovative, ambitious and forward thinking person, to work in partnership with the Inclusion Manager, Headteacher and Leadership Team at our successful and happy school. You will be working with pupils across school who have additional needs and /or an EHCP plan.

We are looking for somebody who:

- Wants to make a difference
- Has high expectations of children's achievement and behaviour;
- Is a passionate person, committed to helping raise standards of achievement for all pupils;

- Is committed to sharing best practice;
- Has a good understanding of classroom management and how to support learning;
- Has the ability to inspire and motivate colleagues and pupils;
- Is flexible in their approach, open to new ideas, a team player;
- Is someone who has an approachable manner, both personally and professionally, and a good sense of humour;
- Has excellent interpersonal skills and an ability to establish positive working relationships with colleagues and pupils;
- Is enthusiastic about parental and wider community links, and able to build positive relationships with families;
- Takes an active part in all aspects of school life - willing to go the extra mile;
- Places safeguarding at the heart of their teachings.

If that sounds like you, then you could be working for a school which is:

- A very welcoming, good school with the capacity to be outstanding;
- A place where you can thrive and grow;
- Full of dedicated, hardworking and talented staff;
- Blessed with well behaved, motivated and happy learners;
- Guided by committed and supportive Governors;
- Providing a genuine opportunity for you to make a difference;
- Committed to support and guidance through CPD and a wide range of experiences;
- An attractive and well-resourced learning environment;
- Led by a committed Headteacher and senior leadership team with a clear vision that prioritises wellbeing;
- Providing a unique opportunity to work in an inclusive school, with a Family Hub Centre on site, an 8place SEND unit and a Resourced Provision.
